

The Billie Holiday Center for Liberation Arts
and Inheritance Baltimore presents:

Baltimore Through the Eyes of Deborah Mason

FEBRUARY 9TH

4:00 - 5:30 PM

Location: Barber Conference
Room, Scott-Bates Commons,
3301 North Charles Street

Parking: available on North
Charles Street and St. Paul Street

This event is FREE and open to the community.

Mrs. Deborah Mason is the Elder-in-Residence Living History Fellow. Mason, affectionately known as “Mama Debbie,” directs the Sankofa Children’s Museum of African Cultures, and was one of the first female journeyman carpenters in Maryland. She works with Graduate Assistant, Ms. Dana Green and the Inheritance Baltimore Community Archives team to curate her life history archive called, “Baltimore through the Eyes of Deborah Brooks Mason.”