

Spring 2023

April 17-21

Undergraduate Showcase

Support JHU Undergraduates by Visiting DREAMS Online!

This week, please take a few minutes to explore and support the research, scholarly, and creative endeavors of JHU's dedicated and hard-working undergraduates. Visit online, ask questions, leave comments. Your engagement means so much!

The event is free and well worth your time.

Mon 4/17 – Fri 4/21: Visit all the presentations online at your convenience, or drop in to the Live (virtual) presentations, every hour on the hour 9am-8pm.

3 Reasons to visit DREAMS Spring 2023:

1. Access is Free, Quick, and EASY: One-click, super-quick, spam-free registration required, which allows you to view all presentations at any time, leave questions and comments, and attend live (virtual) presentations.
2. Your Students and their Mentors Need YOU: We hope many faculty, staff, and fellow students will show their support by visiting DREAMS and engaging with at least one presenter/ project of interest. Your questions and comments are key to students knowing that their work has been seen and appreciated!
3. You WILL Learn Something: The range of projects on display are breathtaking in scope and the presentations are designed to be accessible from novice to expert.
