

16TH ANNUAL

MADAGASCAR WORKSHOP

Yearly international conference for social science/humanities research on Madagascar and the western Indian Ocean

12-14 OCTOBER

KEYNOTE

by celebrated novelist Michele Rakotoson

with translator Allison Charette, literary scholar Professor Bodo Ramangason, and sci-fi author/artist Mose Njo

13 October, 10:45am

Johns Hopkins University Welch
Medical Library
In-person & Zoom

Coffee and lunch provided

Reception: 13
October, 4:30pm

Scan for full program and registration or see www.madagascarworkshop.com

SPECIAL EVENTS

Honoring Professor Pier Larson: A Tour of His Archives with Elizabeth Thornberry and Esmeralda Kale
12 October, 4:30pm

Children of the Soil: The Power of Built Form in Madagascar Book Launch
with Tasha Rijke-Epstein 13 October, 2:15pm

The Hottest of the Hotspots: The Rise of Eco-Precarious Conservation Labor in Madagascar Book Launch with Benjamin Neimark
14 October, 10:45am

Generous sponsorship by: Johns Hopkins
Anthropology | Alexander Grass Humanities
Institute | Center for Medical Humanities and Social Medicine | History of Medicine |
Medicine, Science, Humanities | Modern Languages and Literatures

Image: Lamba Marevaka (Cloth of Dazzling Color) woven by Martin Rakotoarimanana, Daniel Rafidison, Hortensia Harinjaka, Rija Ranarivelo, Mbolatiana Raharimalala, Rondro Faravololona, Mino Colette Randrianasolo, Eugenie Nathalie Rasoavololona. Royal Ontario Museum 2021.26.1