

75 Years of Human Rights

How Far Have We Come and What Needs to Be Done? Commemorating the 75th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Join the SAIS Dean's Office, Foreign Policy Institute (FPI), and GPS for a series of conversations commemorating the 75th anniversary of the UDHR.

Distinguished speakers will reflect on the UN's role in advancing human rights, the future of non- and gender-based discrimination, labor rights, human rights and business, environmental justice, and more.

Dr. Navi Pillay
Keynote Address

Former UN High Commissioner for Human Rights; President, Advisory Council of the International Nuremberg Principles Academy
