LOVE DATA WEEK

Feb 12-16 | 2024

Join us for a week-long celebration of data!

Data is personal. Join the Hopkins Libraries community for a week of workshops and presentations exploring how we participate in or are affected by data.

Whether you're working on qualitative or quantitative data, a beginner or seasoned data wrangler, we've got events for you. Learn about

- Finding and using data in your research
- Ethical data sharing, management, and visualization
- Open scholarship
- Reproducible research
- And much more!
