

Drugs and the Defense of Black Wellbeing

*The Academy at Homewood,
Eisenhower Library, Johns Hopkins University*

LECTURE I

Liberation Doses

Drugs in the History of Black Wellbeing from Slavery to Freedom (19th century)

March 13, 2024
2:00pm-4:30pm

LECTURE II

Junkie Wellbeing

Living at Edge of Creative Liberation and Demise (20th century)

March 14, 2024
2:00pm-4:30pm

LECTURE III

Blowing Smoke

Freedom and Entrapment in the Age of Menthol (21st century)

March 15, 2024
2:00pm-4:30pm

FURTHER DETAILS

Scan the QR code for further details about the program

Henry Putnam

Henry Putnam University Professor,
History and Public Affairs, Princeton University