

JOHNS HOPKINS

WHITING SCHOOL of ENGINEERING

Center for Leadership Education

The 2024 Gary Laben Lecture

GENDER AND LEADERSHIP: CHALLENGING THE BINARIES AND EMBRACING MULTIPLE WAYS OF KNOWING, BEING, AND LEADING

In this session Paige Haber-Curran, a scholar on gender and leadership, will share some of her research and scholarly insights on the topic of gender and leadership. Through this lecture she will encourage participants to deconstruct and unlearn some of the ideas on gender and on leadership that are prevalent in our society in order to advance our collective work on leadership through the lens of gender.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11 | 2:30 PM

SCOTT BATES COMMONS, SALON C

engineering.jhu.edu/cle

PAIGE HABER-CURRAN

Paige Haber-Curran, Ph.D. (she/her) is Professor in the Department of Counseling, Leadership, Adult Education and School Psychology at Texas State University, where she also serves as Program Coordinator for the Student Affairs in Higher Education master's program. Her graduate work includes a PhD in Leadership Studies from the University of San Diego and a MA in College Student Personnel from the University of Maryland. Dr. Haber-Curran's scholarly work focuses on college student leadership development, gender and leadership, emotionally intelligent leadership, and teaching pedagogy. In 2018 Dr. Haber-Curran served as a Fulbright Scholar in Salzburg, Austria where taught and conducted research on topics of emotional intelligence and leadership.