Rodeo

dir. Lola Quivoron, 2022. 107 min. In French w/English subtitles.

Hot-tempered and fiercely independent, Julia (Julie Ledru) is a gearhead who thrives in hostile environments and turns every situation to her advantage. Her obsession with the high-octane world of urban 'Rodeos' – illicit gatherings where riders show off their bikes and latest stunts – sparks a chance meeting with a volatile clique. The heroine strives to prove herself to the ultra-masculine gang and is left wondering who she can trust. Based in part on Baltimore's own bike culture, Rodeo took the "Coup de cœur" award at Cannes in 2022.
