

WHAT IS PROJECT 2025?

A Hop Talks Dinner Discussion

Tuesday, September 17
6:30–8:30 p.m. in Shriver Hall Clipper Room

Open to the Hopkins community. Dinner will be served; registration highly encouraged.

Featuring

DR. KARSONYA WISE WHITEHEAD

Professor at Loyola University Maryland and host of “Today with Dr. Kaye” on WEAA 88.9 FM

JOEL PAYNE

CBS News Political Contributor

DR. LESTER SPENCE

Professor of Political Science and Africana Studies at Johns Hopkins University

Hop Talks invites the Hopkins community to engage in meaningful dialogue on critical issues, facilitated by expert scholars, faculty, and industry leaders. This series is designed to foster respectful and insightful conversations, encouraging students to explore diverse perspectives and deepen their understanding of important topics.

Presented by:

Student Affairs

- Center for Social Concern
- Center for Diversity & Inclusion
- Leadership Engagement & Experiential Development

Department of Political Science

REGISTER
HERE

JOHNS HOPKINS
UNIVERSITY