

ISRAEL, PALESTINE, AND THE WARS IN THE MIDDLE EAST:

AN OPEN CAMPUS DISCUSSION

The October 7 attack and its aftermath threaten to spread to ever-wider regional wars. Slogans and accusations fly on social media and at demonstrations. This discussion offers an opportunity for Hopkins community members of all viewpoints, opinions, and beliefs to hear from a variety of experts, express their own views, listen to others' views, and ask questions. Four Johns Hopkins experts with differing viewpoints will offer short introductions; then the microphones will be open for comments and questions from any and all Hopkins community members.
