

The Hopkins Village: New Parent Back-to-Work Networking Group

Whether it's your first or third child, you are the birth, non-birth, or adoptive parent, the transition back to work is a significant change. Join other Hopkins peers to share support, experiences, tips, and resources.

Who?

Whether you've been out on leave bonding with your child for a few weeks or a few months, this group is here to provide the resources, connections, and encouragement you need. This group is open to any parent transitioning back to work after welcoming a new addition to their family.

When?

The group meets the first Thursday of each month from noon to 1pm.

Registration required.
Click here to register for each session.

Questions? Want to join the Team to chat and connect with others? Reach out to worklife@jhu.edu