

MAPPING MORE SUSTAINABLE FUTURES

A Hop Talks Experience

Friday, April 25 from 9:30am-2:30pm
in South Baltimore (transportation provided)

Open to Hopkins students
Registration Required

Hop Talks invites the Hopkins community to engage in meaningful dialogue on critical issues. This series is designed to foster respectful and insightful conversations, encouraging students to explore different perspectives and deepen their understanding of important topics.

Join us for a tour of the South Baltimore community and learn from community leaders about potential policies and solutions.

REGISTER
HERE

Presented by:

- Center for Social Concern

