

JHU's Semi-Annual Celebration of Research, Scholarly and Creative Projects

Spring 2022

April 19-22

Undergraduate Showcase

Support JHU Undergraduates by Visiting DREAMS Online!

This week, please take a few minutes to explore and support the research, scholarly and creative endeavors of JHU's resilient and hard-working undergraduates. Visit online, ask questions, leave comments. Your engagement means so much! Free and well worth your time.

Tues 4/19 – Fri 4/22: Visit all the presentations online at your convenience

Wed 4/20 and Thurs 4/21: Live (virtual) presentation on the hour 9am – 8pm

Visit DREAMS here: <https://symposium.foragerone.com/dreams-spring-2022>

3 Reasons to Visit DREAMS Spring 2022:

1. Access is Free, Quick and Easy:

One-click super-quick, spam-free registration required, which allows you to view all presentations at any time, leave questions and comments, and attend live (virtual) presentations.

2. Your Peers Need YOU:

We hope many faculty, staff and fellow students will show support for these students by visiting DREAMS and engaging with at least one presenter/project of interest. Your questions and comments are key to students knowing that their work has been seen and appreciated!

3. You WILL Learn Something:

The range of projects on display are breathtaking in scope, and the presentations are designed to be accessible from novice to expert.

Registration required to view presentations at <https://symposium.foragerone.com/dreams-spring-2022>.

Registration is free, quick and spam-free!

Questions? hour@jhu.edu