SNF Agora Institute

This event will highlight the SNF Agora Institute at Johns Hopkins University. SNF Agora is a multi-disciplinary academic and public forum dedicated to strengthening global democracy by improving and expanding civic engagement and inclusive dialogue, and by supporting inquiry that leads to real-world change. In partnerships with scholars, practitioners, students, and the public, the Institute uses research to identify and sharpen strategic choices that members of the public and civic and political stakeholders around Maryland and the world can make to realize the promise of democracy.
