

Racial Justice Concert Series

MARCH 10 | 1PM EST

On Thursday, March 10, 2022 from 1-2pm EST, Grammy-winning guitarist and vocalist Dan Zanes and Haitian-American music therapist/jazz vocalist Claudia Zanes will give a livestream performance at the Creative Alliance. Dan and Claudia Zanes are a musical duo based in Baltimore that creates modern-day, all-ages, sensory-friendly music blending folk, rock, and jazz.

Dan + Claudia Zanes

Dan and Claudia Zanes offer this concert in support of the Black Church Food Security Network, an association of congregations, fairs, food advocates, and community activists working together to create an alternative food system in the Baltimore metropolitan area.

This concert occurs as part of Johns Hopkins' H.O.P.E (Honoring Our Pandemic Experiences) programming, providing healing and meaning-making to the JHM workforce from the extended pandemic experience.
