WE DEMAND AN AMENDMENT TO THE
CONSTITUTION OF THE
UNITED STATES
ENFRANCHISING THE WOMEN OF THIS COUNTRY

Join the SNF Agora Institute as we explore the many ways women have used voting, legislating, and other forms of civic engagement to shape our democracy.

PANEL DISCUSSIONS:

Women Leading the Fight for Civil Rights

Thursday, September 17, 12-12:50 p.m. ET

Professor Martha Jones and SNF Agora Director Hahrie Han discuss the many ways women past and present have used their voices to profoundly influence our democracy.

Women Working Across the Aisle

Friday, September 18, 12-12:50 p.m. ET

Join Senator Barbara Mikulski, Ambassador Constance Morella, and Maryland State Delegate Brooke Lierman for a discussion about the unique perspective women bring to leadership positions and how women working together may help to heal our current political divides.

Women Working Across the Atlantic

Friday, September 18, 2-2:50 p.m. ET

Ambassador Gina Abercrombie-Winstanley, Admiral Michelle Howard, and former State Department official Tamara Wittes share their experiences working to ensure U.S. safety and to foster democracy around the world, and discuss why it's so important to include women in our country's efforts abroad. The panel will be moderated by Mary Sarotte of SAIS's Henry A. Kissinger Center for Global Affairs.

SNF AGORA TRAININGS:

Your Story, Your Life

Saturday, September 19, 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m. ET

A workshop in personal storytelling geared to support women to become protagonists in their own life stories, led by Laura Wexler, co-founder and co-producer of Baltimore's Stoop Storytelling Series and an expert in personal storytelling.

Women, Politics, and Your Right to Participate

Saturday, September 19, 12:30-2 p.m. ET

An interactive workshop focusing on ensuring women's right and ability to participate in electoral politics, led by Caroline Hubbard, senior gender adviser and deputy director for Gender, Women and Democracy at National Democratic Institute.

SNF Agora trainings are small-group, interactive experiences. Our trainings are free, but space is limited and registration is required.
